GIS 4277: Writing Brazilian Culture

The course examines through film and literature several important aspects of regional Brazilian subcultures, such as the Amazonian indigenous, the coastal African, and the inner city youth cultures, the samba schools and football as cultural practices in the context of human rights.

Credits: 3
Program: Global Interdisciplinary Studies