

PSY 1000: General Psychology

Introductory examination of the fundamental concepts of psychology, with particular emphasis on the description of normal human behavior and those factors that underlie it. Prerequisite to all other courses in psychology.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Psychological and Brain Sciences