THL 4700: Spirituality and Technology

Reflection on living in a “technologized” world. Consideration of the ways in which Christian theology and spirituality might serve as a resource for society. Of particular importance are Christian ideas about God, creation and the spiritual practice of “detachment.”

Credits: 3
Program: Theology and Religious Studies